The meeting was opened by President Deb Krogwold at 6:34 p.m.

President Deb Krogwold opened the May meeting at 6:40 p.m. with 12 members present. She gave a Covid update detailing current programming guidance. The plant sale will not be connected with UW Extension.

Pat R. gave the State Representative report. The WIMGA newsletter will be forwarded to members via email. Member badges that have not been received will be mailed by Pat.

The minutes of the April meeting were approved with a motion by Carrie E., seconded by Joan S. Rebecca noted in the treasurer's report that voucher forms will no longer be distributed by her. They are available via a pdf file.

Forms were also available at the meeting.

Patty T-V indicated that previously received grant money has not been spent; projects can now move forward with renewed activities. A question was raised regarding home show advertising. Deb will do a follow-up to receive current information.

Deb reported on the plant sale. Flyers and posters were given to members to distribute. Specifics regarding plants and plant labeling were shared at the meeting.

Pat R. reported that the Waupaca County Fair will be held this year. Workers will be needed for the late August event.

Ila reported that no scholarship applications were received for 2021. Suggestions were offered, including encouraging those who have received money in the past to reapply.

Jean S. gave an update on the New London Children's Garden. Meetings will begin June 10, followed by successive Thursdays. Doug P. reported that he has met with those involved in the Waupaca Children's Garden. Meetings will officially begin on June 9, followed by successive Wednesdays. Volunteers are welcome at both sites.

New business:

The Chain School Community Garden will appreciate help planting their gardens the week of June 24.

The Scandinavia Garden Club has requested presentations relative to gardening. Carrie E. volunteered her availability for a workshop on starting seeds.

The meeting adjourned at 8:15, with a motion by Jean S., seconded by Joan S.
